

GIVE GOD THE GLORY!

WRITING FOR THE LORD MINISTRIES

REVEREND KEVIN WAYNE JOHNSON
PASTOR & AUTHOR

MISSION

TO SPREAD THE GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST THROUGH LITERARY CONTRIBUTIONS AND TEACHING GOD'S WORD TO ENLARGE THE BODY OF CHRIST WORLDWIDE. WITH JESUS CHRIST AS OUR EXAMPLE, WE WILL EDIFY THE BELIEVER, GLORIFY GOD, AND LET OUR LIGHT SO SHINE BEFORE ALL MEN

With the fundamental belief that God uses ordinary people to accomplish extraordinary things, Pastor Kevin Wayne Johnson lives to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ.

His passion is reflected through his national best-selling book series "Give God the Glory!"

Pastor Johnson serves as Senior Pastor, Accokeek First Church of God, Accokeek, MD. Prior to this assignment, he served on the Purpose Management Team and as Pastor of Discipleship at Celebration Church, Columbia, Maryland (June 2010-December 2013), leading eight thriving ministries including WIN Institute (Bible College). Pastor Johnson also serves as Secretary, National Association of the Church of God Men's Ministry (2009 to present). Johnson was initially ordained into the Christian ministry as a deacon while at Shiloh Pentecostal Church, Incorporated, Christian Love Center, Somerville, New Jersey, with his wife, in 2000. He is an Evangelical Training Association (ETA) certified instructor (2000 to present). In 2011, Pastor Johnson became an ordained Church of God minister.

"The consistent message presented as an invitation and encouragement to others, is that of the necessity and value of a relationship with God. After any lengthy discussion with Johnson one would be hard-pressed to deny that he speaks and writes from personal experience and true conviction.

Kevin is a professional in government as well as private industry. For 30 years, he has performed successfully in numerous middle and senior-level positions in the areas of workforce development, training, organizational change, acquisition/procurement, customer service, client relationships, and program management, to include the Department of Defense, Department of the Treasury, the Government of the District of Columbia, Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts, Department of the Army, Defense Logistics Agency, and in the private sector at Vivendi Universal and Reuters America. He has testified before the United States House of Representatives Committee on Small Business, and has prepared testimony that was presented before the District of Columbia Committee on Government Operations. Johnson is a graduate of the U.S. Department of Agriculture Graduate School's Executive Potential Program (1996). During this program, he assisted the Office of Federal Procurement Policy with several procurement reform initiatives that were tied to the National Performance Review under the Clinton Administration. In 1999, he was awarded the distinction of "Fellow" by the National Contract Management Association Board of Directors.

"Kevin Wayne Johnson delivers another powerful glimpse into his best-selling book series: Give God the Glory! A thorough look into the power that resides inside of the local church is clearly written and revealed in this book. A must read for all who sincerely desire to Give God the Glory while understanding the role of the local church in that regard."
